INTRODUCTION

Bhagawan Sri Ramakrishna (1836 – 1886) was born on 18 February 1836 in the village of Kamarpukur about sixty miles northwest of Kolkata. His parents, Kshudiram Chattopadhyaya and Chandramani Devi, were poor but very pious and virtuous. When Sri Ramakrishna was sixteen, his brother Ramkumar took him to Kolkata and after few months he was appointed a priest at Kali Temple at Dakshineswar. There he immersed himself in Sadhana of different religions for twelve years. With his unquenchable thirst for God, Sri Ramakrishna broke the frontiers of Hinduism, glided through the paths of Islam and Christianity, and attained the highest realization through each of them in a short span of time. He looked upon Jesus and Buddha as incarnations of God, and venerated the ten Sikh Gurus. He expressed the quintessence of his twelve-year-long spiritual realizations in a simple dictum: “Tato mat, tato path“, As many faiths, so many paths.”- He affirmed that one must be sincere, earnest, regular and diligent in one’s spiritual practices to achieve the ultimate goal of human life i.e. realization of God.

The centre at Kamarpukur was affiliated to Headquarters of Ramakrishna Math and Ramakrishna Mission, Belur Math in 1947. Some of the significant holy places of Kamarpukur are :

Sri Ramakrishna’s Birth Place :

According to English calendar, on Thursday, the 18th February, 1836, (As per the Indian Almanac, Wednesday, Phalguni Shukla Dwitiya, the second day of the light half of Phalguna) Gadadhar was born 12 minutes before sunrise. Just on the spot of his birth, the altar of the present temple of Sri Ramakrishna has been constructed and the things connected with his birth, viz. a husking pedal, a fireplace and a lamp, have been engraved on it. The marble image of Sri Ramakrishna installed on the 11th May, 1951, is since being worshipped there.

Sri Ramakrishna's Living-Room :

While at Kamarpukur, Sri Ramakrishna used to stay in the south-facing hut situated to the western side of the premises which is presently being used as part of the shrine of Sri Ramakrishna. Once he told the Holy Mother, “After my passing away, you stay at Kamarpukur, grow greens, live upon this simple fare and spend your days in repeating the name of the Lord. Whatever arrangements the devotees might lovingly make for you, don't let your own house at Kamarpukur be ruined”. That was why the Holy Mother lived in that hut after passing away of the Master, despite dire financial and other difficulties.

The Temple of Sri Raghuvera :

This was previously a small hut facing east. It had floor and walls of mud and a roof of straw. The present temple has been constructed exactly on the same spot with the same dimensions.

In it, the Shalagrama Sheela of Raghuvera (Rama), the earthen jar representing Goddess Sitala, the Rameswara Shivalinga, an image of Gopala and the Shalagrama Sheela of Narayana are worshipped every day. The last two deities were worshipped by Lakshmi Didi, niece of Sri Ramakrishna.

The Parlour and the Mango Tree :

In the parlour, Sri Ramakrishna used to meet people and instruct them. The Mango Tree planted by Sri Ramakrishna stands to the east of the parlour and still yields fruit.

Yugi's Shiva Temple :

This temple is situated to the north of the residence of Sri Ramakrishna. In front of the temple, his mother had a divine vision. While speaking to Dhani, she suddenly saw a beam of celestial light which emerged from the image of Shiva filled the temple and entered her body swiftly. Taken by surprise and overpowered with fear, she fell into a swoon. When she regained consciousness, she felt that the light was still in her womb and that she had conceived. The result was that Sri Ramakrishna was born.

Halder Pukur :

The vast water tank at the northern side of the Yugi's Shiva Temple is known as Halder Pukur. Many sweet memories of the boyhood days of Sri Ramakrishna centre round this tank. On innumerable occasions, Gadadhar came here with his friends and swam sportively there. The water of the tank has become sacred as Sri Ramakrishna, his father Kshudiram and the Holy Mother used to bathe in it.

Lakshmijala :

'Lakshmijala' is situated to the west of Halder Pukur. It is a paddy field. After leaving Derepur, Sukhlal Goswami of Kamarpukur gifted Kshudiram Chattopadhyay a few huts of his homestead and also a small plot of paddy field measuring about half an acre which Kshudiram gratefully accepted and lived there happily. By the grace of Raghuvir, the land was soon producing so much rice that it became more than sufficient for the little family. The surplus was given to guests and visitors. Kshudiram hired the farmers to plough the field; when the seedlings were ready, he would transplant a few bunches while taking the name of Raghuvir and then talking to farmers to finish the job.

The Primary School of the Lahas :

The school was held in the spacious Natmandir in front of Sri Durga Temple of Lahas where Gadadhar used to take school lessons at his early age. In a short time he learnt to read and write, but soon his interest changed and he developed a tendency to get merged in ecstatic moods at the sight of beautiful scenery or in contemplation of particular deities. The boy liked the recital of the Puranas and the performance of village dramas more than his school lessons. His handwriting was good. The plays of Subahu and Yogadya which Gadadhar copied are still preserved in the Belur Math.

Temple of Gopeswar Shiva :

This ancient temple is situated to the east of Sri Ramakrishna's house. Either Sukhlal Goswami, who helped Kshudiram to settle at Kamarpukur, or his forefather Gopilal Goswami had founded this temple with a big Shivalinga. When Sri Ramakrishna was passing through ecstatic moods at Dakshineswar, his mother hearing the report that Gadadhar had turned mad, got alarmed and went to Gopeswar Temple, where she practiced hard penances to get the divine grace for the cure of her son's madness. Then she heard a voice directing her to do likewise before the Shiva of Mukundapur. As a result of her penances, she was assured that her son was not mad at all.

Sitanath Pyne's House :

Sitanath Pyne was a man of mediocre means. His house was to the south of the Lahas. Gadadhar used to go there in his boyhood days. When he was about 12 or 13 years old, he used to have ecstatic trances while singing devotional songs, or reading holy books like the Ramayana and the Mahabharata there. The women of the village then worshipped him as the embodiment of Sri Chaitanya or Sri Krishna. Once on the occasion of the Shivaratri, there was an arrangement for the performance of a village drama. As the boy was to act as Shiva fell suddenly ill, Gadadhar was persuaded to play that role. But as soon as he came to the stage decked with matted locks, Rudraksha beads and ashes, he fell into a deep trance which lasted very long and the performance had to be stopped.

Budhui Moral Cremation Ground :

To the east of the village of Kamarpukur, lies the cremation ground. While staying at Kamarpukur, Sri Ramakrishna used to go there now and then to spend much of his time in contemplation.

Cremation Ground and Banyan Tree at Bhutir Khal :

This cremation ground is situated at the north-west of Sri Ramakrishna's house. When Sri Ramakrishna came home after his strenuous austerities at Dakshineswar at the age of 22, he used to go there and to the other cremation ground (Budhui Moral) for spiritual practices. There is an old Banyan tree under which he used to meditate during the greater part of the night. He also planted a Bilwa tree there.

Palace of Manik Raja :

Manik Chandra Bandopadhyaya of Bhursubo Village was renowned in the area for his great benevolence and so he became known as “Manik Raja”. To the west of Bhutir Khal he reared an extensive mango grove for the public. His garden became the playground of Gadadhar and his friends. With the passage of time it has become a paddy-field, with only a few mango trees standing here and there as a reminiscence of the past. There are many other incidents mentioned in Sri Sri Ramakrishna Lila-Prasanga about the intimacy of Gadadhar with Manik Raja.

Dhani Kamarini's Birth Place and Temple :

It is situated to the south-east of the Sri Ramakrishna's house. Recently, a small temple has been built on that site by some devotees and also an oil painting of Dhani with the child Gadadhar in her lap has been placed. In that temple the photo of Sri Ramakrishna is worshipped. Once Boy Gadadhar promised Dhani that at the time of his investiture with the sacred thread he would accept alms from her. But it was contrary to that custom to accept alms from a non-brahmin on such an occasion. So his elder brother objected to it; but Gadadhar was adamant to keep his word to Dhani. And so he kept his word.

Chinu Shankhari's Birth Place :

Srinivas (alias), though not born in a high family, had great devotion to God. His relations with the boy Gadadhar was very sweet. He had a strong faith that Gadadhar was a divine being and loved him dearly. He was afraid that he might die before he could witness the unfoldment of his divine play. One day he fed Gadadhar with sweets and prayed for his grace. Even when Sri Ramakrishna grew up, he kept loving Srinivas. After his sadhana periods, whenever Sri Ramakrishna visited Kamarpukur, Srinivas spent his time with him in religious discourses. Later, the master often referred to his deep seated devotion and love. At present nothing exists at the site of Chinu's house situated to the north-east of the Sri Ramakrishna's house and is still being maintained by Ramakrishna Math, Kamarpukur. New construction is going on as "Chinu Shankhari's Memorial Building".

Mukundapur Shiva Temple :

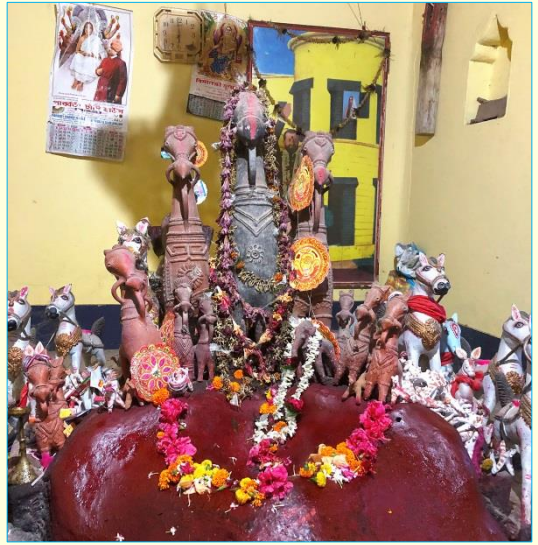

It is situated to the south-west of Sri Ramakrishna's Birth Place. On being directed by Gopeswar Shiva, Gadadhar's mother went to this temple and lay there without food and drink, praying for the recovery of Gadadhar from his supposed madness. She, however, felt comforted when she heard a divine voice saying "don't be afraid, your son is not mad; he has become like this because of divine intoxication". It is said that from that time onwards many people have got their prayers fulfilled by practicing such penances before the deity.

Anur Vishalakshi Temple :

The village called Anur is situated about 3 km away to the north of Kamarpukur. Goddess Visalaakshi of Anur is a very popular deity. One day a few ladies of Kamarpukur and its neighbourhood were going in a group to offer worship to Visalaakshi when the eight-year old Gadadhar also accompanied them. He recited from memory beautiful verses and sang songs about the deities, while walking with them. But while singing the glory of Visalaakshi, his body became stiff. Tears flowed down his cheeks and his voice also choked. The ladies felt extremely anxious. Prasanna, the devoted daughter of Dharmadas Laha, was also present in the party. All on a sudden it occurred to her mind that it might be due to the mystic influence of the Goddess on the simple child who had great faith in her. When she spoke it out, all others believed it. They prayed to the Goddess repeatedly saying, “Oh Mother Visalaakshi be pleased; save us Mother; please look upon us with compassion.” Wonder of wonders! Immediately the face of Gadadhar brightened up with a sweet smile and gradually consciousness came back. The ladies felt relieved and with their hearts overflowing with devotion, they went to the temple, offered their worship duly and returned home.

Guest House :

Being the birthplace of Bhagwan Sri Ramakrishna and the epicentre of Ramakrishna Movement, thousands of devotees visit this Maha-Tirtha from various parts of the world to get spiritually refreshed and elevated. We have arrangements for limited Guest House and Dormitory having basic facilities/ amenities which can be booked (via email kamarpukur@rkmm.org) by the devotees to spend a few days in a divine and tranquil atmosphere of the Math and go back with renewed enthusiasm to spend meaningful lives.

Kamarpukur Ramakrishna Mission Multipurpose School, the transformed version of ‘Laha Babu’s Patshala’, started its journey in full fledge in 1962 with an aim to spread Swamiji’s vision and mission of education among the common people. Since its inception, the school has been catering formal education along with man making and character building education i.e the manifestation of perfection already in man. The School fosters a large number of poor students with the help of Kamarpukur Ramakrishna Math and Ramkrishna Mission. The students, here, get lessons to develop their future career and emotional development for the quest of being a good man in the true sense of the term. The school management, teachers and guardians always try to make better academic results than previous years. The school imports the famous lesson of Lord Ramakrishna, “The long we live, the long we learn” and the epoch making motto of Swami Vivekananda-“To serve man is to serve God”, among the students.

The school has a hostel where almost 150 students live and learn in pristine ambiance of nature. Adding with the school education, they learn self- learning about discipline, punctuality, manners, habit of fighting against the all odds of life. When they leave our school, they enter into society as a true soldier of Swamiji who will join the feast of social development in a healthy way. Their feats in extracurricular activities are eye-blinking to other students.

The school has a well-furnished and equipped library, a computer laboratory, three science laboratories, a smart class and all modern aids for teaching. The premises have a big playground which appears before the students as a garden of paradise.

Due to socio-economic difficulties, a considerable part of our rural population is yet to see the light of education. In this context, Pallimangal has been conducting a number of Non-formal Education centres at different villages to provide minimum literacy to them. Books, Khata, Teaching Materials, School Dress, Umbrella, Sataranjee, Jug and Bags are distributed to every student during the year. Presently 32 such NFE centres are being continued for the backward and down-trodden classes of children by Pallimangal in 28 villages under 16 Gram Panchayet areas and one in Tarakeswar Municipality through active involvement of village level organizations. The following chart shows the position in details during 2022-23:

RAMAKRISHNA MISSION CHARITABLE DISPENSARY & EYE (DAY) CARE CENTRE

One of the important principles Swami Vivekananda learned from his Master was Shiva-Jnane Jiva Seva, 'to serve Jiva as Shiva'. Since man is potentially divine, service to man is indeed service to God. Instead of looking upon a needy person as an object of pity, he/she should be looked upon as an object of worship. Such an attitude elevates both the giver and the recipient. Swamiji's love and concern for the poor continues as a directive principle in the Math and Mission's service programmes. Following the footsteps of this great ideal, Ramakrishna Mission, Kamarpukur, is running a Charitable Dispensary for the needy and deserving patients in and around the locality.

Tuberculosis Survey

National Leprosy Elimination Programme (NLEP) :

“I should see God in the poor and it is for my salvation that I go and worship them. The poor and the miserable are for our salvation, so that we may serve the Lord, coming in the shape of the distressed, coming in the shape of lunatic, the Leprosy afflicted person. Bold are my words and let me repeat that it is the greatest privilege in our lives that we are allowed to serve the lord in all these shapes.” – Swami Vivekananda

Few years back, Leprosy was one of the burning public Health Problems in and around the Arambagh Sub-division in West Bengal. Considering the need Ramakrishna Mission Pallimangal has started this programme in July, 2001. The programme was envisaged with general survey, early case detection, diagnosis and MDT treatment, retrieval of the defaulter, Inter-personal IEC, Group IEC. Similarly

Dairy

The Math houses a 'Goshala' or cow shed having 60 high-milch cows. Unlike other cow sheds, the one at the Math adopts a procedure of hygienic cattle-care. For this, there is a separate trained work-force. Fodder and medication is given as per prescription from eminent veterinary experts. Average daily 220 liters of milk is produced. Most of the milk obtained, is consumed in distributing among 120 boys residing in our school hostel.

Youth Cell

It was Swamiji's desire that the youth should have life-building, man-making, character-building education, and that they should stand up on their own feet and take up the responsibility. He has reposed great faith in the coming generations.

With the aim to impart Swamiji's ideas of Human Excellence, however, a small measure it be, Ramakrishna Math, Kamarpukur has started a "Youth Cell" from 28th July 2019.

Since then, every Sunday the youth between the age group of 18 to 35 visit the Math and under the guidance of the Monastic member, they spend 3-4 hours in the holy atmosphere of the Math. They are engaged in reading spiritual books, group discussion,s and in some kind of Seva work. Average 25-30 youth participate in the event.

Mango Grove of Manik Raja

It is very well known to the devotees of Sri Sri Thakur that in his childhood days a wonderful divine Leela has been enacted by Sri Thakur, Balak Gadadhar at that time in the pristine garden of Manik Raja, locally known as “Mango Grove of Manik Raja”. He used to come with his mates to this serene place full of mango trees and started doing rural plays theatres on different mythological stories of Sri Krishna and Rama. It was he only who used to lead the village boys group and often their performance resounded throughout the verdant mango orchard.

To restore the old memories, we have located this sacred leelabhumi of Sri Thakur and the exact plot where the divine plays were enacted. We have undertaken a project to recreate the mango orchard of Manik Raja.

As you are aware that on the auspicious day of Jagannath Rath Festival i.e. on 14th August 2018 we have performed the foundation laying ceremony by the hands of Srimat Swami Vimalatmanandaji Maharaj, Adhyksha, Ramakrishna Math (Yogodyan), Kankurgachhi, Kolkata.

Mango Grove Administrative Building

We are very happy to inform all the devotees that the “Mango Grove of Manik Raja” was inaugurated on 4th July, 2019 by the auspicious presence of Revered Srimat Swami Vimalatmanandaji

An Earnest Appeal

Dear Devotees and Well-wishers,

Namaskar and Greetings from Ramakrishna Math, Kamarpukur!

Once unknown to humankind, now Holy Kamarpukur is, slowly, getting the global attention for being the birthplace of Sri Ramakrishna and the epicentre of Ramakrishna Movement. With the passage of time, Holy Kamarpukur has been emerged as Maha-tirtha which is showering solace on the restless minds and uplifting the calm minds.

As a result, innumerable devotees are visiting to explore this holy place every day. Thus, it is our prime endeavour to ensure that all the devotees and pilgrims go back from Holy Kamarpukur with fond memories which will inspire them to lead meaningful lives.

In this pursuit, good amount of our time and manpower are utilized to ensure that devotees and pilgrims are welcomed to partake of Prasad on daily basis. On an average 15000 devotees have Prasad every month. As Kamarpukur will be, shortly, getting railway connectivity with Bishnupur- Howrah, this number will go drastically high.

We have conventional kitchen, which was constructed almost two decades back, which was planned to prepare the Prasad for 100-200 devotees per day. With the increase in the number of devotees and pilgrims, our present kitchen is struggling to cope up with the pressure of preparing food for approx. 500 devotees every day, 1500 devotees on the weekends, 3000 devotees on various festivals and 22000 devotees on birthday celebration of Sri Ramakrishna Dev.

We are badly in need to upgrade our existing conventional kitchen into modern kitchen.

We shall be grateful if magnanimous admirer and supporter of Ramakrishna Movement like you come forward and extend the helping hand for the completion of this well-intentioned project of Ramakrishna Math Kamarpukur which will cost approximately Rs. 50 lakhs.

The cheque may kindly be drawn in favour of “Ramakrishna Math, Kamarpukur” or you may send your contribution by Bank transfer or through NEFT/ RTGS as per the following details:
